

LAW No. 2016/007 OF 12 JUL 2016

RELATING TO THE PENAL CODE

The Parliament deliberated and adopted, the President of the Republic hereby enacts the law set out below:

PART I

BOOK I

CRIMINAL LAW
APPLICATION OF CRIMINAL LAW

CHAPTER I
PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

SECTION 1: Content

The penal code is composed of:

- a) book I comprising Sections 1 to 101;
- b) book II comprising Sections 102 to 361;
- c) the decree relating to regulatory provisions of the Penal Code which define offences, comprising Sections 362 to 370;
- d) sections 371 and 372, which lay down the transitional and final provisions.

SECTION 1-1: No exemption

All persons shall be subject to the criminal law.

SECTION 2: General and special application

(1) This Code and every provision of criminal law shall be subject to the rules of international law and to all treaties duly promulgated and published.

(2) Book I of this Code shall govern all other criminal law, unless special provision has been made, even before the entry into force of this book, concerning particularly the exclusion of suspension and the exclusion or limitation of mitigating circumstances by a law or by regulations possessing force of law. This Subsection shall apply actively from the 1st October 1966 inclusive.

(3) Any other general provision shall be subject to any special provision on the same matter, save as otherwise provided.

CHAPTER 2:
APPLICATION OF CRIMINAL LAW IN TIME

SECTION 3: No retrospection

No criminal law shall apply to acts or omissions committed before its coming into force or in respect of which judgment has not been delivered before its repeal or expiry.

SECTION 4: Less severe law

(1) A new provision of criminal law shall, if less severe, apply to any offence in respect of which judgment has not been delivered before its coming into force

(2) Where the new provision is more severe, the old law shall continue to apply to offences committed before its coming into force.

SECTION 5: New preventive measure

A new law authorizing a preventive measure shall apply to any case where judgment has not become final before its coming into force.

SECTION 6 : Abolition of offence, penalty or measure

Any penalty or preventive measure shall cease to be enforceable:

- a) from the moment when the act or omission in respect of which it was imposed is no longer an offence ;
- b) on the abolition of the penalty or measure generally.

CHAPTER III:
APPLICATION IN SPACE

SECTION 7: Offence within Territory

(1) The criminal law of the Republic shall apply to any act done or omitted within its territory.

(2) The territory of the Republic shall include its territorial waters and the airspace above the said territory and waters, and all vessels and aircrafts registered in the Republic.

Provided that no member of the crew of a foreign vessel or aircraft may be tried for an offence committed against another member of the same crew on board that vessel or aircraft, though within the territorial waters or airspace of the Republic, unless the assistance of the local authorities shall have been invoked or public order shall have been disturbed.

SECTION 8: Offence Partly or Wholly Abroad

The criminal law of the Republic shall apply:

- a) to any offence of which any ingredient has taken place within its territory ;
- b) to any offence against the security of the State or of counterfeiting the Great Seal or the current money of the State wherever committed.

Provided that no foreigner may be tried for an offence to which the law of the Republic applies solely by virtue of this Subsection unless he has been arrested within the territory of the Republic or has been extradited to it.

SECTION 9: Abetment, Conspiracy, Attempt

The criminal law of the Republic shall apply:

- a) to any act or omission within its territory constituting abetment, conspiracy or attempt with a view to an offence without that territory, provided that the said offence be also punishable by the law of the place of commission ;
- b) to any such act or omission without its territory with a view to an offence within that territory.

SECTION 10: Offence Abroad by Citizen or Resident

(1) The criminal law of the Republic shall apply to any actor omission abroad by a citizen or resident, which is punishable by the law of the place of commission and is defined as a felony or as a misdemeanour by the law of the Republic.

Provided that the sentence passed may not be more severe than that provided by the foreign law.

(2) No citizen or resident may be tried for a misdemeanor against a private party to which the law of the Republic applies solely by virtue of this Section except at the instance of the authority controlling prosecution after private complaint or after official request to the Government of the Republic by the Government of the place of commission.

SECTION 11: International Offences

The criminal law of the Republic shall apply to mercenary, racial discrimination, piracy, trafficking in persons, slave trade, slavery, trafficking in narcotics, trafficking in toxic wastes, money laundering, cyber criminality, corruption and offences of misappropriation of public property committed even outside the territory of the Republic.

Provided that, no foreigner may be tried in the Republic for such an offence committed abroad unless he has been arrested in the Republic and has not been extradited, and except at the instance of the authority controlling prosecution.

SECTION 12: General Jurisdiction

Subject to the exceptions contained in this chapter, the Courts of the Republic shall have jurisdiction to try any offence to which its criminal law is applicable.

CHAPTER IV FOREIGN CRIMINAL LAW AND JUDGMENTS

SECTION 13: Exclusion of Foreign Law

Subject to Sections 9 and 10 of this Code and to this chapter, no foreign criminal law shall have any effect in the courts of the Republic.

SECTION 14: Foreign Judgments

No foreign criminal judgment against any person shall have effect within the territory of the Republic unless:

- the act or omission in question is defined by the law of the Republic as a felony or misdemeanour under the ordinary law ;
- the regularity of the judgment, its finality, and its conformity with the public policy of the Republic shall have been ascertained either by the Court trying the person in question or by the Court of Appeal of his residence at the instance of the authority controlling prosecution.

SECTION 15: Effect of Foreign Criminal Judgment

Such judgment shall:

- be taken into consideration as a previous conviction for the purposes of aggravation of sentence, of preventive confinement, of suspension of sentence or revocation of such suspension, of revocation of release on licence, of rehabilitation, and of amnesty ;
- found a good plea in the courts of the Republic convict or acquit, provided that in the case of conviction the accused shall have served his sentence or satisfied it by prescription or pardon.

SECTION 16: Execution of Foreign Judgment

(1) Any such judgment as is contemplated by Section 14 and has been ascertained to conform to that Section, if passed against a citizen or against a resident, and not enforced elsewhere, shall be capable of enforcement within the territory of the Republic, unless enforcement shall have been barred by release on licence, pardon, amnesty or prescription.

(2) Enforcement shall require the order of the court contemplated by Section 14, which may also, in a fit case, impose the preventive measures attracted according to the law of the Republic by the offence in question.

PART II PUNISHMENT AND PREVENTION

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

SECTION 17: Penalties and Offences to be prescribed

SECTION 21: Classification of Offences

(1) Offences shall be classified as felonies, misdemeanours and simple offences according to the principal penalties provided for them, as follows:

- a felony shall mean an offence punishable with death or with loss of liberty for a maximum of more than 10 (ten) years and fine where the law so provides ;
- a misdemeanour shall mean an offence punishable with loss of liberty or with fine, where the loss of liberty may be for more than 10 (ten) days but not for more than 10 (ten) years, and the fine more than CFAF 25 000 (twenty-five thousand) ;
- a simple offence shall mean an offence punishable with imprisonment for up to 10 (ten) days or with fine of up to CFAF25 000 (twenty-five thousand).

(2) The nature of the offence shall not be affected by:

- modification of the penalty imposed by reason of an excuse or of mitigating circumstances;
- aggravation of the penalty imposed under Sections 88 or 89 of this Code.

CHAPTER II
PRINCIPAL PENALTIES

A – DEATH

SECTION 22: Conditions Precedent to Execution

(1) Every sentence of death shall be submitted to the President of the Republic for his decision on commutation.

(2) No death sentence may be executed until the President shall have signified his decision not to commute.

(3) No woman with child may be executed until after her delivery.

(4) No execution may take place on Sunday or on a public holiday.

SECTION 23: Execution

(1) Execution of a death sentence shall be by shooting or hanging as may be ordered by the judgment and shall be public unless otherwise ordered in the decision not to commute.

(2) The bodies of persons executed shall be returned to their families at their request, but on condition of a quiet funeral.

(3) Nothing may be published by the press beyond the official record of the execution and any official communiqué that may be released.

(4) The detailed application of this Section shall be prescribed by decree.

B – IMPRISONMENT

SECTION 24: Imprisonment

Imprisonment shall mean loss of liberty during which the offender shall be obliged to work, subject to any contrary order of the court for reasons to be recorded in the judgment.

SECTION 25: Prisoner's fund

(1) The proceeds of every prisoner's work shall be allocated as follows:

- 1/3 to the Treasury ;

2/3 to the building up of a reserve fund for the prisoner.

(2) The conditions governing the implementation of this Section, particularly those with regard to the management of the fund, shall be laid down by regulation.

C – FINE

SECTION 25-1: Fine

(1) Fine shall mean a financial penalty by virtue of which a convict, natural person or corporate body, pays an amount of money, specified by Law, into the Public Treasury.

(2) The maximum amount of fine applicable to corporate bodies shall be five times that provided for natural persons.

(3) Where a corporate body is guilty of an offence punishable with imprisonment only, the fine to be paid shall be from CFAF 1 000 000 (one million) to CFAF 500 000 000 (five hundred million).

D - DISSOLUTION

SECTION 25-2: Dissolution

(1) Dissolution shall mean capital punishment which may be passed against corporate bodies.

(2) A judgment on dissolution may be passed against a corporate body that has acted in violation of its object clause.

(3) The judgment on the dissolution of a corporate body shall refer such corporate body to the competent court for winding up at the instance of the Legal Department.

E - CLOSURE OF AN ESTABLISHMENT

SECTION 25-3: Closure of an establishment

The penalty of closure of an establishment shall mean the temporary or final closure of an establishment considered to be a corporate body.

Such penalty shall prohibit the accused corporate body from carrying out the activity through which the offence was committed.

Such temporary closure may not exceed 5 (five) years and may not be suspended.

F - ALTERNATIVE PENALTIES

SECTION 26: Community service

(1) Community service shall be a sentence passed for offences punishable with imprisonment of less than two years or with fine only. Such sentence shall be executed for the benefit of a public corporation, a private corporation charged with a public service mission or an association entrusted with performing a community service.

(2) The sentence provided under Sub-section (1) above shall be passed by the trial court in lieu of imprisonment or fine, after ruling on the plea of guilty with the prior consent of the accused person.

(3) The court shall fix the period of community service which shall not be less than two hundred hours or more than 240 (two hundred and forty) hours and shall not be suspended.

(4) Community service shall be free of charge.

(5) The judgment shall state the period of imprisonment that may be served by the offender in case of non-performance of community service; such a period of imprisonment shall not be suspended.

(6) Community service shall be laid down by a separate instrument.

SECTION 26 -1: Reparatory sentence

(1) Reparatory sentence shall mean a sentence passed for offences punishable with imprisonment for not more than 2 (two) years or with fine only.

It entails the obligation, for the offender, to indemnify the victim within the period and under the conditions laid down by the court.

(2) The sentence provided under Sub-section 1 above shall be pronounced by the trial court in lieu of imprisonment or fine after ruling on the plea of guilty and such sentence may not be suspended.

(3) The judgment shall state the period of imprisonment that may be served by the offender in case of non-performance of the reparatory sentence.

SECTION 26-2: Application of alternative penalties

The conditions governing the application of alternative penalties shall be laid down by a separate instrument.

SECTION 26-3: Persons excluded from alternative penalties

The alternative penalties provided for in Sections 26 and 26-1 above shall not apply to persons who violate the law on arms, those who commit sexual offences and those who cause bodily injury as specified in this Code.

G – LOSS OF LIBERTY, COMMON PROVISIONS

SECTION 27: Commencement of sentence

(1) Where the offender has not been remanded in custody or where no arrest or imprisonment warrant is issued against him at the time of judgment in the circumstances authorized by the Criminal Procedure Code, no sentence of loss of liberty may be enforced until it has become final.

(2) No woman who is with child or who has been recently delivered may begin to serve her sentence until six weeks after delivery.

(3) A woman with child already remanded in custody shall continue to benefit from the regime of remand in custody until the expiry of the period referred to in Subsection 2 above.

(4) Where a husband and wife have been sentenced for the same or different offences to imprisonment for less than a year, and are not in custody at the time of sentence, and show that they have a fixed common residence and a child under the age of 18 (eighteen) supported by them and in their charge, the sentence on one may be suspended until expiry of the sentence on the other.

SECTION 28: Calculation of Sentence

(1) In a sentence of loss of liberty expressed in days, each day shall mean 24 (twenty-four) hours.

(2) Sentence of one month shall mean 30 (thirty) days.

(3) Sentences expressed in months or years shall be reckoned by calendar date

(4) Subject to Section 53, the duration of the sentence shall include and run from:

- a) the day on which the offender was taken into custody under that sentence ;
- b) in a case of concurrent sentences passed on different dates, the day on which he was first taken into custody under any such sentence.

(5) In case of escape, the period of unlawful liberty shall not be counted in the duration of the sentence.

SECTION 29: Separation of Minors

An offender under the age of 18 (eighteen) shall serve his sentence in a special establishment, or, failing such establishment, shall be separated from offenders over that age.

CHAPTER III ACCESSORY PENALTIES

A – FORFEITURES

SECTION 30: Definition

The forfeitures applicable under this Code shall be the following:

- (1) removal and exclusion from any public service, employment or office
- (2) incapacity to be a juror, assessor, expert referee or sworn expert ;
- (3) incapacity to be guardian, curator, deputy guardian or committee, save of the offender's own children, or member of a family council ;
- (4) prohibition on wearing any decoration ;
- (5) prohibition on serving in the armed forces ;
- (6) prohibition on keeping a school, on teaching in any educational establishment, and in general on holding any post connected with the education or care of children.

SECTION 31: Where applicable

(1) A life sentence shall carry with it for life the forfeitures prescribed by the last preceding Section.

(2) Any other sentence for felony shall carry with it the same forfeitures for the duration of the sentence and for the 10 (ten) years following its expiry or release on licence unrevoked.

(3) The trial court may in any case covered by the last preceding subsection, for reasons to be recorded in the judgment, relieve from one or more of the said forfeitures, or reduce their duration to not less than 2 (two) years.

(4) To a sentence for misdemeanour, and where so authorized by law the competent court may, for reasons to be recorded in the judgment, add, for not more than 5 (five) years, one or more of the forfeitures prescribed by the last preceding Section.

SECTION 32: Forfeitures and judgment in default

Where judgment is passed in default, any forfeiture shall take effect as from the date of publication of the notices prescribed by the Criminal Procedure Code.

B - OTHER ACCESSORY PENALTIES

SECTION 33: Publication of judgment

(1) Where the competent court may order publication of its judgment, it shall be posted in manner to be prescribed by decree for up to 2 (two) months in the case of felony or misdemeanour or (15) fifteen days for a simple offence.

(2) In such case, the competent court may order publication of its judgment in such media as it may indicate.

(3) Any such publication shall be at the expense of the convict.

(4) Posting may be limited to the operative part of the judgment.

(5) The provisions under Sub-sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 above shall also apply to corporate bodies.

(f) Information through print media, radio and television or by Internet as well as fair comments shall be allowed.

SECTION 34: Closure of Establishment

Where the competent court orders the closure of a business or industrial establishment, or of any premises devoted to gainful activity, which was used for the commission of an offence, such closure shall imply a ban on the exercise of the same business or industry or activity in the same premises, whether by the offended or by any other to whom he may sell, transfer or let the establishment or premises.

SECTION 34-1: Placement under judicial supervision

(1) The sentence of placement under court supervision shall be applicable to corporate bodies found criminally liable and shall consist in the appointment of a judicial representative whose control mission and period thereof shall be prescribed by the Court.

(2) The mission referred to under sub-section 1 above shall concern only the activity in respect of which the offence was committed.

(3) The judicial representative referred to in subsection 1 above shall render account of his mission as regularly as necessary to the competent State Counsel.

(4) At the end of the judicial representative's mission and based on his report, the competent State Counsel shall seise the Court that ruled on the placement under court supervision, for the corporate body to be relieved of the measure.

SECTION 35: Confiscation of "corpus delicti"

(1) On conviction for any felony or misdemeanour, the competent court may order confiscation of any property, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the offender and attached, which was used as an instrument of its commission, or is the proceeds of the offence.

(2) Such confiscation may not be ordered on conviction for a simple offence unless specially authorized by law.

CHAPTER IV
PREVENTIVE MEASURES

A - BANNED OCCUPATION

SECTION 36: Banned Occupation

(1) Upon conviction for a felony or misdemeanour under the ordinary law, the court may, for reasons to be recorded in the judgment, forbid the convict from continuing to follow any occupation found to stand in a direct relation to the offence, and his continuation in which would give grave reason to apprehend a repetition.

(2) Subject to any contrary provision of law, the ban may not be for less than a year nor for more than 5 (five) years, after completion of service of the principal sentence.

(3) For corporate bodies, the ban referred to in Sub-sections (1) and (2) above shall correspond to prohibition, for a specified period, from directly or indirectly undertaking one or several activities contained in its purpose.

(4) In case of subsequent conviction under the conditions provided for in Sub-section (1) above and Section 88 of this Code for felony or misdemeanour, the ban shall be for life.

B - PREVENTIVE CONFINEMENT

SECTION 37: Definition

(1) Preventive confinement shall mean confinement for from 5 (five) to 20 (twenty) years under a programme of work and social reformation, during which the offender shall, in default of a separate establishment, be confined separately from convicts serving a sentence of imprisonment.

(2) The internal working of the establishment, the programme for the inmates, the details of their work, and the manner of their reformation shall be prescribed by decree.

SECTION 38: Offenders not liable

No sentence of preventive confinement may be passed on a person who would be aged less than 25 (twenty-five) or more than 60 (sixty) years at the expiry of his principal sentence

SECTION 39: Where Applicable

(1) Sentence of preventive confinement may be passed on any offender subject to Section 88 of this Code by reason of the following convictions, including that accompanying the sentence, within the space of 10 (ten) years exclusive of any sentence served and any preventive measure involving personal restraint:

- a) two (2) convictions for felony punished with imprisonment or with death commuted first into imprisonment ; or
- b) one such conviction for felony and two for misdemeanour, each punished with more than 1 (one) year of imprisonment ;
- c) four (4) convictions for misdemeanour, each punished with more than 1 (one) year of imprisonment.

(2) The said space of 10 (ten) years shall be counted back from the date of the latest relevant offence.

(3) To be counted for the purpose of preventive confinement a conviction must have become final and must have been for an offence committed after the preceding conviction to be counted has become final.

(4) Previous convictions the sentences which have been commuted, pardoned or remitted shall be taken into account.

(5) Previous convictions expunged by rehabilitation or by amnesty shall not be taken into account.

(6) Previous convictions for offences committed by persons under the age of 18 (eighteen) shall not be taken into account.

C - POST-PENAL SUPERVISION AND ASSISTANCE

SECTION 40: Definition and Duration

(1) Every offender sentenced to loss of liberty for more than a year may on conviction, where the circumstances warrant and for reasons to be recorded in the judgment, be subjected by the court for up to 5 (five) years to post-penal supervision and assistance, consisting of general obligations and, in a fit case, of added special obligations.

(2) The offender's compliance with his obligations shall be superintended by a Magistrate nominated in that behalf with the assistance of salaried or honorary supervisors.

Provided that where the conviction is for felony or the offender was sentenced under Section 88 of this Code for misdemeanour, his compliance shall be superintended by the police.

(3) The detailed application of this Section shall be prescribed by decree.

SECTION 41: General Obligation

The obligations to which the offender shall always be subject shall be:

1. to establish his residence in a given place ;
2. to appear when called by the authority in charge of supervision and assistance ;
3. to receive visits from the supervisor and give him all information and papers useful for the verification of his means of support ;
4. to inform the supervisor in advance, and explain the reasons to him, of any change of employment or residence ;
5. to inform the supervisor in advance of any absence of over 15 (fifteen) days, and inform him of his return ;
6. to obtain the previous permission of the authority in charge before any departure abroad.

SECTION 42: Special Obligations

In addition to the general obligations prescribed by the last preceding Section, the Court may impose upon the offender any one or more of the following special obligations:

1. to take up residence in one or more specified places ;
2. not to be present without special and temporary permission in specified places ;
3. to remain in employment or follow a course of instruction or vocational training ;
4. to submit to measures of control or of treatment, including treatment in hospital, and in particular with a view to curing an addiction to alcohol or drugs ;

5. to contribute to the family expenses, or to pay regularly any maintenance due from him .
6. to compensate any damage caused by this offence ;
7. not to drive any class of motor vehicle, defined in terms of the classification in force for the purpose of driving licences ;
8. to avoid specified places, such as bars, race-courses, gaming-houses ;
9. not to wager ;
10. to abstain from undue consumption of alcohol ;
11. to avoid the company of specified offenders, in particular his co-offenders of the accessories to the offence ;
12. not to receive or lodge at his residence specified persons.

D - HEALTH INSTITUTION

SECTION 43: Insane Persons

(1) Upon acquittal for insanity on a charge of felony or misdemeanour punishable with 2 (two) years imprisonment or more and where the liberty of the accused shall have been found by the court to be a public danger, the court shall order his confinement in a special institution.

(2) Such confinement may be terminated only by the same court upon evidence by the competent medical authority that the liberty of the confined person is no longer a public danger.

SECTION 44: Addict or partially insane

(1) Where an addict to alcohol or drugs, or a person suffering from mental sickness is convicted of a felony or misdemeanor punishable with 2 (two) years imprisonment or more and related to his addiction or mental condition, and where his liberty shall have been found to be a public danger, the competent court may order his confinement in a special health institution.

(2) Such confinement shall not exceed 2 (two) years in the case of an addict to alcohol or drugs, nor 5 (five) years in the case of the mentally sick.

(2) Such confinement may be earlier terminated by the court upon evidence by the competent medical authority that the liberty of the confined person is no longer a public danger.

E – CONFISCATION

SECTION 45: Confiscation

The confiscation of anything whose manufacture, custody, sale or use is unlawful shall be ordered even if not belonging to the offender, and even if the prosecution does not result in conviction.

CHAPTER V RECOGNIZANCE

SECTION 46: Where applicable

(1) Any person who by his conduct or by his utterances shall have exhibited an unambiguous intention to commit an offence which may disturb the public peace may be required by the President of the District Court to enter into a recognizance with or without solvent sureties in such sum as may be therein fixed to refrain from commission of any offence of the like nature for the duration of the period therein specified.

(2) The sum shall be fixed having regard to the resources of the person bound over.

SECTION 47: Period

Where the person required to enter into the recognizance is a habitual offender, the period of the recognizance may extend to 3 (three) years, but shall not otherwise exceed 1 (one) year.

SECTION 48: Recognizance by Parents

Where a person under the age of 18 (eighteen) shall have committed any act defined as an offence, the President of the District Court may require his parents, guardian or person responsible under customary law to enter into the recognizance described by Section 46, to be forfeited if the said person shall commit any similar act within the space of 1 (one) year, unless the obligor shall prove that he took all reasonable steps to avoid the minor's committing the offence.

SECTION 49: Non-compliance

(1) Where a person required to enter into a recognizance does not do so, or fails to find the sureties required, he may be immediately taken into custody until he shall have complied with the order; but such custody may not exceed the period for which the recognizance was required.

(2) Except under Section 48, the obligations described in Section 42 (1) and (2) may be substituted for custody.

SECTION 50: Breach of Recognizance

(1) Upon conviction of an offence covered by the recognizance the District Court shall without prejudice to any penalty incurred for the offence order forfeiture of the sum therein fixed.

(2) Payment of the said sum shall be enforced as against the person bound over in like manner as if it were a fine, and as against the sureties by any civil process.

CHAPTER VI CONCURRENT AND CONSECUTIVE SENTENCES

SECTION 51: Concurrent Sentences the Rule

(1) Where any person is convicted on several charges of felony or misdemeanour tried jointly, or of simple offence tried with either, only one sentence may be passed, not exceeding the maximum prescribed for the most severely punished offence.

(2) Where any person is convicted on several such charges tried separately, any sentence later passed may be ordered to run concurrently with, or in the case of fines to be merged in, any earlier sentence; and where it is not so ordered, the aggregate of the sentences may not exceed the maximum prescribed for the most severely punished offence.

(3) In the calculation of such aggregate an earlier sentence reduced by remission shall be counted at its reduced and not at its original length.

(4) No sentence may be ordered to run concurrently with, or to be merged in, a sentence which had already become final before the act or omission in respect of which the second sentence is passed.

(5) In respect of simple offences sentences shall not be concurrent or merged unless the court shall so order.

(6) Subject to any contrary order of the court, several sentences other than to principal penalties shall be consecutive as between themselves.

SECTION 52: Consecutive Sentences

(1) Sentences of loss of liberty shall be enforced in the chronological order in which the imprisonment warrants were notified to the offender.

(2) Accessory penalties and confinement under Section 43 of this Code shall run from the date when the sentence becomes final, while other preventive measures shall commence from the expiry or suspension of the principal sentence.

(3) Several consecutive preventive measures shall be enforced in the following order:

- a) Confinement in a health institution ;
- b) Preventive confinement ;
- c) Post-penal supervision and assistance.

(4) Where during the currency of any such measure the offender is sentenced to loss of liberty for another felony or misdemeanour, the preventive measure shall be suspended until the new sentence shall have been served out.

SECTION 53: Remand in custody

(1) Where the offender has been remanded in custody, the duration of such custody shall be wholly deducted from the computation of loss of liberty.

(2) Where the offender, after having been remanded in custody, is sentenced with fine only, the Court shall relieve him wholly or in part of the said fine.

CHAPTER VII SUSPENSION AND REMISSION OF SENTENCE

A – SUSPENDED SENTENCE

SECTION 54: Application and Effect

(1) Subject to any contrary provision of law, upon conviction for felony or misdemeanour of an offender not previously sentenced to imprisonment, or where after such sentence his conviction has been expunged, the court may, for reasons to be recorded in the judgment, suspend for a period of from 3 (three) to 5 (five) years the enforcement of any sentence of imprisonment for five (5) years or less, or for fine not imposed under Section 92 (2) of this Code

(2) Such suspension shall not affect any accessory penalty or preventive measure resulting from the conviction.

(3) Where within the period so fixed, calculated from the date when the judgment becomes final, the offender commits a further felony or misdemeanour for which he is sentenced to imprisonment, and where such sentence is not suspended on probation, both sentences shall be served consecutively, that which has been suspended under this Section being served first.

(4) The expiry of the said period shall otherwise produce the effects of rehabilitation provided for by Section 676 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

B – PROBATION

SECTION 55: Where Applicable

(1) In any case where a sentence of 6 (six) months or more of imprisonment may be suspended, suspension may be combined with probation.

(2) When combined with probation suspension may also be granted to an offender with a previous sentence of imprisonment suspended without probation or with a previous sentence of imprisonment for less than 6 (six) months not suspended.

(3) The period of probation may not be less than 3 (three) nor more than 5 (five) years.

(4) Subject to subsections (1) and (2), Section 54 of this Code shall apply to suspension on probation.

SECTION 56: Meaning of Probation

(1) Probation shall mean the subjection of the offender to general and, in a fit case, to added special obligations of supervision and assistance.

(2) The offender's compliance with his obligations shall be superintended by a Magistrate nominated in that behalf, with the assistance of salaried or honorary probation officers.

(3) The probation officer shall be chosen and may be replaced by the Magistrate in charge.

(4) The Magistrate in charge at the offender's residence may at any time for reasons to be recorded in writing suspend all or any of the special obligations or vary them, but not so as to make them more burdensome.

SECTION 57: General Obligations

An offender on probation shall always be subject to the general obligations prescribed by Section 41 of this Code, save that for the supervisor shall be substituted the probation officer.

SECTION 58: Special Obligations

In addition to the general obligations prescribed by the last preceding Section, the judgment may subject the offender to one or more of the special obligations described by Section 42.

SECTION 59: Duties of Probation Officer

(1) The probation officer shall be bound to satisfy himself that the offender observes the general and special obligations of his probation, and in addition to stimulate and encourage the offender's efforts in the direction of reform, in particular his family and occupational readaptation.

(2) He shall be bound to afford the offender all moral support in his power, and it shall be his duty, where the offender is in need of financial support, to apply to the Magistrate in charge to approach any social assistance organization with a view to a grant.

(3) He shall report regularly to the said Magistrate on the progress of his task, and shall refer to him in case of difficulty.

SECTION 60: Breach of Obligations

(1) Where during the period of probation the offender shall have broken any general or special obligation, the court which suspended the sentence may order its enforcement.

(2) Such order shall not carry with it revocation of any previous suspension without probation.

(3) Where a suspended sentence has not been revoked under this Section or Section 54 of this Code, the expiry of the period shall produce the effects provided for in Section 676 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

C - RELEASE ON LICENCE

SECTION 61: Definition

(1) Release on licence shall mean the premature release of a person sentenced to loss of liberty, or subjected, by a conviction decision, to a similar preventive measure. Such release on licence shall be granted and revoked by decree.

(2) The general conditions and detailed procedure for grant and revocation of release on licence shall be prescribed by decree.

(3) Premature release of an offender, where ~~not revoked, shall become~~ final upon expiry of the term of sentence.

SECTION 62: Suspension of Measures

(1) The decree granting release on licence also suspends enforcement of any order of confinement in a special health establishment, or of preventive confinement, or of post-penal supervision and assistance, or of banned occupation which would follow on release from the principal penalty.

(2) Such suspension shall become definitive 5 (five) years after the expiry of the principal penalty.

SECTION 63: Time for Grant

(1) Release on licence from a principal penalty may not be granted before service of half the sentence, or of the aggregate of consecutive sentences, regard being had to remissions if any. It may not be granted to a recidivist before service of two-thirds of the sentence.

(2) A person under preventive confinement may not be granted release on licence before service of 5 (five) years of the sentence.

SECTION 64: Revocation

(1) Release on licence may be revoked on conviction for felony or misdemeanor later committed or for breach of any of the general or special conditions of the licence.

(2) In case of revocation, the period of liberty shall not be counted in the duration of the sentence.

D - SUSPENSION OF POST-PENAL MEASURES

SECTION 65: Suspension of Post-penal Measures

(1) On the proposal of the authority contemplated by Section 40 (2), the court which has ordered post-penal measures, may at any time, for reasons to be recorded in the order, suspend all or any of the special obligations imposed, or vary them, but not so as to make them more burdensome.

(2) Such suspension may at any time in like manner be revoked.

(3) The duration of such suspension, whether or not revoked, shall be counted in the duration of the measures.

E - PARDON – PRESCRIPTION – DEATH

SECTION 66: Pardon

Pardon shall mean the commutation or remission, in whole or in part and with or without conditions, of a penalty or preventive measure or of the obligations of a probation order.

SECTION 67: Prescription

(1) Where a principal penalty has remained unenforced for the following periods after judgment has become final, neither it nor any accessory penalty or preventive measure accompanying it may any longer be enforced:

- a) for felony: 20 (twenty) years ;
- b) for misdemeanour and simple offence tried with misdemeanour: 5 (five) years ;
- c) for any other simple offence: 2 (two) years.

(2) Prescription shall be suspended while enforcement of the sentence is prevented by any consideration of law or of fact apart from the offender's will.

Time shall begin to run again on the intervention of an enforcement measure taken before the completion of the period.

A person convicted in default may no longer appear to serve his sentence after prescription

SECTION 68: Death

The offender's death shall not prevent enforcement of pecuniary sentences against his estate or closure of an establishment, or confiscation.

CHAPTER VIII EXPUNGEMENT OF THE CONVICTION

A - REHABILITATION

SECTION 69: Definition and Effect

(1) Rehabilitation is a measure which, unless otherwise provided by law, expunges a conviction for felony or misdemeanour. It puts an end to any accessory penalty and to any preventive measure except to confinement in a health institution and closure of an establishment.

(2) Where a person has been convicted more than once, rehabilitation shall apply to all the convictions.

(3) Rehabilitation shall be as of right or by court judgment.

(4) a) In order to be rehabilitated, an offender shall show proof of payment of all costs and damages or of any reduction thereof granted him. Otherwise, he shall prove that he served an imprisonment term in default of payment.

b) Where he is convicted of fraudulent bankruptcy, he shall prove the discharge of his liabilities relating to capital, interest and expenses or prove that a reduction was granted him.

c) Where the civil party cannot be found, the amount due him shall either be paid to his representative or, otherwise, into the deposit and guarantee fund.

d) Where the offender claims that the civil party has refused the amount due him, he shall show proof of such refusal and pay the said amount into the deposit and guarantee fund.

e) The four-year prescription shall not be applicable hereto.

(5) a) Rehabilitation shall not as of right restore any decoration forfeited nor automatically reinstate the person rehabilitated in any orders from which he would have been debarred;

b) Police supervisory and security measures against the offender shall remain enforceable;

c) Amounts paid in satisfaction of pecuniary sentences and confiscations from the person rehabilitated shall remain with the Public Treasury and shall be non-refundable;

d) Rehabilitation shall not as of right reinstate anyone in public office or employment, rank, public or ministerial positions nor shall it give rise to any reconstitution of his career.

However, the person rehabilitated shall regain the rights forfeited such as parental authority, guardianship, electoral rights and the right to appear as a witness in court.

e) Rehabilitation shall not bar an application for review of judgment with a view to establishing innocence.

SECTION 70: Rehabilitation as of Right

(1) An offender who has not had any further sentence of imprisonment for felony or misdemeanour shall as of right be rehabilitated upon expiry of the following periods:

- Five (5) years, for a sentence of fine ;
- ten (10) years for a single sentence of imprisonment of up to six months ;
- fifteen (15) years for a single sentence of up to two years ;
- twenty (20) years for a single sentence of up to five years.

(2) The period shall be 15 (fifteen) years for an aggregate sentence of more than 1 (one) year but not more than 2 (two) years.

(3) Sentences ordered to run concurrently shall be counted as a single sentence.

(4) The said periods shall run, in the case of a sentence of fine, from the date of payment or of prescription, and in the case of loss of liberty, from the date of expiry of the sentence, taking into consideration any remission or prescription.

(5) The partial or total remission of a sentence shall amount to its partial or total execution.

SECTION 71: Rehabilitation by Court

(1) Any offender may apply to the court for rehabilitation.

(2) Rehabilitation may only be applied for after 5 (five) years in the case of a conviction for felony and after 3 (three) years in the case of a conviction for misdemeanour. These time-limits shall run from the date following the day of his release in the case of a sentence to loss of liberty, or payment in the case of a fine.

(3) The time-limit prescribed in Subsection (2) above shall be doubled in the case of persons with a previous conviction.

SECTION 72: Rehabilitation after death

(1) In the case of death of the offender, the application may be followed up or even filed by his spouse, his ascendants or his descendants.

(2) In the case of death of the applicant, any application for rehabilitation already filed may be continued by the Legal Department.

B – AMNESTY

SECTION 73: Effects of Amnesty

(1) Without prejudice to any civil right, an amnesty shall expunge a conviction and shall put an end to the enforcement of all penalties, whether principal or accessory, and of all preventive measures pronounced in consequence of the conviction, save confinement in a health institution and closure of an establishment.

(2) Unless otherwise expressed, an amnesty shall bar the commencement or continuation of any prosecution.

(3) Unless so expressed, an amnesty shall not relieve of the liability for any expenses due to the Treasury in respect of a conviction which has become final.

(4) Unless so expressed, it shall not affect the right of the Treasury to any sums already collected in satisfaction of expenses, fines or confiscation.

(5) Unless so expressed, it shall by itself neither restore to any decoration nor restore to any order forfeited.

(6) Unless so expressed, it shall not of itself restore to any public service employment or office and shall give no right to restoration to the position in a public service which, but for the conviction, would have been attained.

(7) It shall be no bar to an application for revision with a view to establishing innocence in fact.

PART III
CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY OF NATURAL PERSONS AND CORPORATE BODIES

CHAPTER I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 74: Punishment and Responsibility

(1) No penalty may be imposed except upon a person criminally responsible.

(2) Criminal responsibility shall lie on him who intentionally commits each of the ingredient acts or omissions of an offence with the intention of causing the result which completes it.

(3) Save as otherwise provided by law, no criminal responsibility shall arise from the result, though intended, of an omission.

(4) Save as otherwise provided by law, there shall be no criminal responsibility unless subsection (2) of this Section has been satisfied.

Provided that responsibility for a simple offence shall not require any intention to act or to omit or to cause the result.

SECTION 74-1: Criminal responsibility of corporate bodies.

- a) Corporate bodies shall be criminally responsible for offences committed on their behalf by their organs or representatives.
- b) The provisions of the subsection (a) above shall not apply to the State and its agencies.
- c) The criminal responsibility of natural persons who are authors of reprehensible acts may be compounded with that of corporate bodies.

SECTION 75: Ignorance of Law and Motive

Neither ignorance of the law nor motive shall be material to criminal responsibility

SECTION 76: Execution of the Law

No act or omission in execution of the law or authorized by law, and performed in accordance with the conditions prescribed by law, shall constitute an offence.

CHAPTER II IRRESPONSIBILITY AND DIMINISHED RESPONSIBILITY

SECTION 77: Accident and Physical Compulsion

No criminal responsibility shall arise from accident or from irresistible physical compulsion.

SECTION 78: Insanity

(1) No criminal responsibility shall arise from the act or omission of a person suffering from mental illness which deprives him of all will-power or of the knowledge that what he does is blameworthy.

(2) Mental illness whose consequences are only partial shall diminish responsibility.

SECTION 79: Intoxication

Involuntary intoxication shall have the same effect as mental illness.

SECTION 80: Infancy

(1) No criminal responsibility shall arise from the act or omission of a person aged less than 10 (ten) years.

(2) An offence committed by a person aged not less than 10 (ten) years and not less than 14 (fourteen) years may attract only such special measures as may by law be provided.

(3) For an offence committed by a person aged over 14 (fourteen) and under 18 (eighteen) years, responsibility shall be diminished.

(4) A person aged 18 (eighteen) years or over shall be responsible as an adult.

(5) The age relevant to this Section shall be that attained at the date of commission.

SECTION 81: Threats

(1) No criminal responsibility shall arise from submission to threats, not otherwise avoidable, of imminent death or of grievous harm as defined by this Code.

Provided that where the act committed is defined as an offence punishable with death or has resulted in death or in grievous harm, the responsibility of the person committing the act shall be merely diminished.

(2) This Section shall not apply to a person who has voluntarily exposed himself to the risk of such threats.

SECTION 82: Compulsion

Responsibility shall be diminished for an offence committed:

- a) by a person aged less than 18 (eighteen) years under the compulsion of his parents or of the person having charge of him, or responsible for him under customary law ;
- b) by an employee or subordinate under the compulsion of his employer or superior.

SECTION 83: Obedience to Lawful Authority

(1) No criminal responsibility shall arise from an act performed on the orders of a competent authority to whom obedience is lawfully due.

(2) This Section shall not apply where the order is manifestly unlawful.

SECTION 84: Lawful Defence

(1) No criminal responsibility shall arise from an act dictated by the immediate necessity of defence of the person acting or of any other person, or of any right of himself or of any other, against an unlawful infringement:

Provided that the means of defence be proportionate to the seriousness of the infringement threatened.

(2) Intentional killing shall be proportionate to an attack causing a reasonable apprehension of death, of grievous harm as defined by this Code of rape or of sodomy.

SECTION 85: Provocation

(1) Responsibility shall be diminished for an offence immediately provoked by the unlawful act of another against the offender or, in his presence, against his spouse, descendant or ascendant, brother or sister, employer or employee, or a minor or incapable in his charge.

Provided that the reaction be proportionate to the provocation.

(2) Intentional killing or wounding shall be proportionate to a provocation by violent blows or injuries.

(3) Intentional killing or wounding of a spouse or of his or her lover shall be proportionate to the provocation of finding them in the act of adultery.

(4) In order to diminish responsibility provocation must be of a kind to deprive an ordinary person of self-control.

SECTION 86: State of Necessity

No criminal responsibility shall arise from an infringement of a right of property, not justified as lawful defence under Section 84, but inflicted in order to protect the person acting or any other person, or his or another's property, from a grave and imminent danger not otherwise avoidable. Provided that the means of protection be proportionate to the harm.

SECTION 87: Effect of Diminished Responsibility

(1) Wherever responsibility is by law diminished, the penalty provided for the offence shall be reduced as follows:

- a) The penalty of death or of loss of liberty for life shall be reduced to loss of liberty for from 2 (two) to 10 (ten) years;
- b) Any other penalty for felony shall be reduced to loss of liberty for from 1 (one) to 5 (five) years;
- c) The maximum penalty for misdemeanour, whether of loss of liberty or of fine, shall be reduced by half, and the minimum to that provided by Section 92 (1) of this Code.

(2) Where responsibility is reduced for more than one reason or where there are in addition mitigating circumstances the minimum shall be that provided by Section 92 (1).

CHAPTER III
AGGRAVATION OF CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY OF NATURAL PERSONS AND CORPORATE BODIES

SECTION 88: Previous convictions of natural persons and corporate bodies

(1) A recidivist shall be:

- a) any natural person or corporate body who, having been convicted for a felony or misdemeanour, commits another simple offence classified as felony or misdemeanour within the time-limit running from the date of final conviction and which expires 5 (five) years after the execution or expiry of the sentence ;
- b) any natural person or corporate body who, having been convicted for a simple offence commits another simple offence within the time-limit running from the date of final conviction, which expires 12 (twelve) months after the execution or expiry of the sentence.

(2) In case of recidivism, the maximum penalty provided for shall be doubled.

SECTION 89: Public servants

(1) Subject to any special penalties provided for felonies or misdemeanours committed by national, foreign or international public servants, national, foreign or international public officers or national, foreign or international officials, the fact of being a public servant established or otherwise shall aggravate the responsibility of any such person guilty of any other felony or misdemeanour against which it is his duty to guard or to take action.

(2) In case of aggravating circumstances, the maximum penalty provided for shall be doubled.

CHAPTER IV
MITIGATION AND SELECTION OF SENTENCE

SECTION 90: Mitigation

The benefit of mitigating circumstances may be given, for reasons to be recorded in the judgment, save where they are by law expressly excluded.

SECTION 91: Mitigation in Case of Felony

(1) Upon a finding of mitigating circumstances in favour of any person convicted of felony, the sentence may be reduced to not less than 10 (ten) years' loss of liberty if the offence be punishable with death, to not less than 5 (five) years if it be punishable with loss of liberty for life, and to not less than 1 (one) year in any other case.

(2) Where the penalty is reduced under the last subsection to 10 (ten) years or less the court may add a fine of up to CFAF 2 000 000 (two million).

SECTION 92: Mitigation in Other Cases

(1) Upon a finding of mitigating circumstances after conviction of misdemeanour or of a simple offence, the court may reduce to 5 (five) days any sentence of loss of liberty, and any sentence of fine to CFAF 1 (one), and may pass sentence of one such penalty only.

(2) Where the offence is by law punishable with loss of liberty only, the court may substitute a fine of up to CFAF 1 000 000 (one million) for misdemeanour or up to CFAF 25 000 (twenty-five thousand) for a simple offence.

SECTION 93: Selection of Sentence

Sentence of penalty or measure shall vary, within such limits as may be prescribed or authorized by law, according to the circumstances of the offence, and to the public danger which it may represent, to the circumstances of the offender and to the likelihood of his reformation, and to the practical means of carrying it out.

CHAPTER V
ATTEMPT AND CONSPIRACY

SECTION 94: Attempt

(1) An attempt to commit a felony or misdemeanour shall mean the performance of any act towards its commission unambiguously indicating an irrevocable intention to commit it, and shall be treated, where execution has been arrested or has failed solely by reason of circumstances independent of the offender's will, as the commission of the felony or misdemeanour attempted.

(2) An attempt shall be punishable notwithstanding that complete execution was impossible by reason of a circumstance of fact unknown to the offender.

(3) Mere preparation shall not constitute an offence.

SECTION 95: Conspiracy

(1) Conspiracy shall mean the resolve concerted and determined between 2 (two) or more persons to commit an offence.

(2) There can be no conspiracy between husband and wife.

(3) Conspiracy to commit a felony or misdemeanour shall be treated, where execution has failed solely by reason of circumstances independent of the conspirators' joint will as the commission of the felony or misdemeanour resolved.

(4) The responsibility of a conspirator voluntarily withdrawing from the conspiracy before execution has commenced shall be diminished.

(5) No penalty may be imposed upon a conspirator who prevents the execution of the offence resolved or who before any attempt at execution informs the administrative or judicial authorities of the conspiracy.

CHAPTER VI
PARTICIPATION

SECTION 96: Co-offenders

A co-offender shall mean a person who, in agreement with another, takes part with him in the commission of an offence.

SECTION 97: Accessories

(1) An accessory shall mean a person who abets the commission of a felony or misdemeanour, that is:

- a) who orders or in any manner causes the commission of an act or omission so defined; or
- b) who aids or facilitates the preparation or the commission of such an offence.

(2) Attempted abetment shall be treated as abetment.

SECTION 98: Punishment of Co-offenders and Accessories

(1) Subject to any special provision of law, a co-offender and an accessory shall be punishable in like manner as a sole or principal offender.

(2) Circumstances resulting in the irresponsibility of any person, or in his exemption from punishment or reduction or increase of his punishment, shall, where personal, affect only the person concerned.

(3) Circumstances other than personal shall affect any co-offender or accessory who could have foreseen them.

SECTION 99: Foreseeable Consequences

(1) Any co-offender or accessory to the commission or attempted commission of a felony or misdemeanour shall also be responsible in respect of any other offence committed or attempted as a foreseeable consequence of the agreement or abetment.

(2) Any person habitually furnishing places of refuge or assembly to malefactors of whose felonious conduct he is aware shall also be liable to punishment as their accessory.

SECTION 100: Accessory after the Fact

(1) An accessory after the fact shall mean a person who after the commission of a felony or misdemeanour shelters an offender or his accessories from arrest or from investigation, or who has custody of or disposes of anything taken, misappropriated or otherwise obtained by means of the offence.

(2) This Section shall not apply as between husband and wife.

(3) An accessory after the fact shall be punished under special provisions of law

PART IV
STATE LAWS

SECTION 101: Breach of State Laws and Others

(1) Where any law of either Federated State expressly so provides, any breach of such law which is not defined or punishable under this Code or any other federated law shall be punished with imprisonment for up to 1 (one) year or with fine of from CFAF 25 000 (twenty-five thousand) to CFAF 500 000 (five hundred thousand) or with both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) Breach of any order lawfully issued under such law shall constitute a simple offence.

Whoever fails to render assistance to a person in danger of death or grievous harm, whether by his own endeavours or by calling for help, where such assistance involves no risk to himself or to any other person, shall be punished with imprisonment for from 1 (one) month to 3 (three) years or with fine of from CFAF 20 000 (twenty thousand) to CFAF 1 000 000 (one million), or with both such imprisonment and fine.

C - COMMON PROVISIONS

SECTION 284: Mistake as to Victim

For the purposes of Sections 275 to 281 inclusive the infliction of death or the use of force or interference shall be treated as intentional notwithstanding that it is intended to be inflicted on or used against a different person.

SECTION 285: Constructive Force

For the purposes of this Code the following shall be treated as the use of force or as interference:

- a) the administration of any substance harmful to health ;
- b) desertion under section 282 ;
- c) deprivation of nourishment or care, to a degree endangering health, by a person having custody in law or in fact of another who is either incapable of withdrawing himself from the said custody or incapable of providing for himself.

SECTION 286: Medical Treatment

Sections 277 to 281 inclusive shall not apply to the professional services of any person duly authorized to render them, where performed with the consent either of the patient or of such person as may have custody of him:

Provided that where the patient is incapable of consent his spouse may consent on his behalf, and where communication with the said spouse or person having custody is impossible without risk to the patient, consent shall not be necessary.

SECTION 287: Interest of Victim

The infliction of harm and the use of force shall constitute no offence where proved to be justified by the immediate necessity of avoiding greater harm to the victim.

SECTION 288: Sport

Sections 278 to 281 inclusive shall not be applicable to anything done in the course of a sport and in accordance with its rules.

D - UNINTENTIONAL KILLING AND HARM

SECTION 289: Unintentional Killing and Harm

(1) Whoever by lack of due skill, carelessness, rashness or disregard of regulation causes another's death or such harm, sickness or incapacity as is described in section 277 or 280 shall be punished with imprisonment for from 3 (three) months to 5 (five) years or with fine of from CFAF 10 000 (ten thousand) to CFAF 500 000 (five hundred thousand), or with both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) Where such harm, sickness or incapacity as is described in Sections 277 or 280 is caused by an offence against section 227 or 228 (2) (a) or (b) the imprisonment shall be from 6 (six) to (20) twenty years.

(3) Where another's death is caused by an offence against Sections 227 or 228 (2) (a) or (b), the punishment shall be imprisonment for life.

(4) Where any offence against this section is committed in the course of driving a vehicle requiring a driving license, the Court may disqualify the offender for up to 3 (three) years from holding such license and for any subsequent offence within the meaning of Section 88 of this Code may disqualify him for up to 10 (ten) years.

SECTION 290: Drivers of Vehicles

(1) The punishment provided by section 289 (1) shall be doubled for an offence committed by the driver of any vehicle

- a) who is drunk or drugged when driving ; or
- b) who has not the license required for driving the vehicle in question ; or

- c) who with intent to avoid his liability departs before being identified.

(2) Where such harm as is described in section 281 is caused unintentionally in the circumstances of the last foregoing subsection, the driver shall be punished with imprisonment for from 6 (six) months to 4 (four) years and with fine of from CFAF 10 000 (ten thousand) to CFAF 100 000 (one hundred thousand).

(3) For any offence against this section, the Court may disqualify the offender for up to five years from holding a driving license; and on subsequent conviction within the meaning of Section 88 of this Code may disqualify him for life or for any lesser term.

(4) In any case not covered by subsection (1) (c) of this section, the driver of any vehicle involved in an accident who with intent to avoid his liability departs before being identified shall be punished with imprisonment for from 1 (one) month to 1 (one) year and with fine of from CFAF 20 000 (twenty thousand) to CFAF 200 000 (two hundred thousand); and the Court may disqualify him for up to 2 (two) years from holding a driving license.

CHAPTER II PRIVATE LIBERTY AND TRANQUILITY

A - LIBERTY

SECTION n 291: False Arrest

(1) Whoever in any manner deprives another of his liberty shall be punished with imprisonment for from 5 (five) to 10 (ten) years and with fine of from CFAF 20 000 (twenty thousand) to CFAF 1 000 000 (one million).

(2) The punishment shall be imprisonment for from 10 (ten) to 20 (twenty) years in any of the following cases:

- a) where the deprivation of liberty lasts for more than a month; or
- b) where it is accompanied with physical or mental torture; or
- c) where the arrest is effected with the aid of a forged order from a public authority or of a uniform unlawfully worn, or pretending an appointment not held.

SECTION 292: Forced Labour

Whoever for his personal advantage compels another to do any work or to render any service which he has not offered of his own free will shall be punished with imprisonment for from 1 (one) to 5 (five) years or with fine of from CFFAF 10 000 (ten thousand) to CFAF 500 000 (five hundred thousand), or with both such imprisonment and fine.

The Court may in addition impose the forfeitures described in Section 30 of this Code.

SECTION 294: Immoral Earnings

(1) Whoever procures, aids or facilitates another persons' prostitution, or shares in the proceeds of another's prostitution, whether habitual or otherwise, or who is subsidized by any person engaging in prostitution shall be punished with imprisonment for from 6 (six) months to 5 (five) years and with fine of from CFAF 20 000 (twenty thousand) to CFAF 1 000 000 (one million).

(2) Whoever lives with a person engaging in prostitution shall be presumed to be subsidised by her, unless he shows that his own resources are sufficient to enable him to support himself.

(3) The punishment shall be doubled where:

- a. the offence is accompanied; by coercion or by fraud or where the offender is armed; or where he is the owner, manager or otherwise in charge of an establishment where prostitution is habitually practiced;
- b. where the offence has been committed to the detriment of any person under the age of 21 (twenty-one);
- c. where the offender is the father or mother, guardian or person with customary responsibility.

(4) In the cases referred to under subsection 3, the provisions of section 48 shall be applied.

(5) The court may impose the forfeitures described by Section 30 of this Code and disqualify the offender for the same period from being guardian or curator of any person and from having custody, customary or otherwise, of any person under the age of 21 (twenty-one).

(6) Upon conviction under subsection 3 (a) of this section, the court shall order closure of the establishment, to whatever other use it may be put.

(7) The prostitute herself shall not be treated as accessory to any offence under this section.

B - SEXUAL OFFENCES

SECTION 295: Private indecency

(1) Whoever in any place, notwithstanding that it may not be open to the public, commits an indecent act in the presence of any person of either sex and without his consent shall be punished with imprisonment for from 15 (fifteen) days to 2 (two) years or with fine of from CFAF 10 000 (ten thousand) to CFAF 100 000 (one hundred thousand), or with both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) The punishment shall be doubled where the offence is accompanied by assault.

SECTION 296: Rape

Whoever by force or moral ascendancy compels any person, whether above or below the age of puberty, to have sexual intercourse with him shall be punished with imprisonment for from 5 (five) to 10 (ten) years.

SECTION 297: Subsequent Marriage

Marriage freely consented between the offender and the victim, even where she is over puberty at the time of commission of the offence provided for in Sections 295 and 296 above, shall have no effect on the prosecution and conviction.

SECTION 298: Aggravation

The penalties prescribed by Sections 294, 295 and 296 shall be doubled where the offender:

- a) has authority over the victim, or custody of him by law or by custom; or
- b) is a public servant or minister of religion; or
- c) is helped by one or more others.

C - PERSONAL TRANQUILITY

SECTION 299: Invasion of Residence

(1) Whoever enters or remains in another's residence against his will shall be punished with imprisonment for from 10 (ten) days to 1 (one) year or with fine of from CFAF 5 000 (five thousand) to CFAF 50 000 (fifty thousand), or with both such imprisonment and fine.

(2) This Section shall not apply between spouses, to parents in respect of their children under 21 (twenty-one) years of age and unemancipated, or to guardians or persons responsible by custom in respect of their wards.

SECTION 301: Simple Threats

Whoever orally or by any writing or picture threatens another with force or interference, or with the destruction of any property, or with breaking into his residence, shall be punished with imprisonment for from 10 (ten) days to 3 (three) years and with fine of from CFAF 5 000 (five thousand) to CFAF 150 000 (one hundred and fifty thousand).

SECTION 302: Conditional Threats

(1) Whoever threatens another, expressly or by implication, with force or other interference in case of his failure to comply with any order or condition shall be punished with imprisonment for from 10 (ten) days to 6 (six) months and with fine of from CFAF 5 000 (five thousand) to CFAF 25 000 (twenty-five thousand).

(2) Where the force or other interference would constitute a felony punishable with death or with imprisonment for life, the punishment shall be:

a) imprisonment for from 6 (six) months to 3 (three) years and fine of from CFAF 5 000 (five thousand) to CFAF 70 000 (seventy thousand) for verbal threats;

b) imprisonment for from 2 (two) to 5 (five) years and fine of from CFAF 10 000 (ten thousand) to CFAF 250 000 (two hundred and fifty thousand) for threats in writing or picture; and the Court may in addition impose the forfeitures described in section 30 of this Code.

SECTION 302-1: Sexual Harassment

(1) Whoever takes advantage of the authority conferred on him by his position to harass another using orders, threats, constraints or pressure in order to obtain sexual favours, shall be punished with imprisonment for from 6 (six) months to 1 (one) year and with fine of from CFAF (one hundred thousand) to CFAF 1 000 000 (one million).

(2) The penalty shall be imprisonment for from one to 3 (three) years where the victim is a minor.

(3) The penalty shall be imprisonment for from 3 (three) to 5 (five) years where the offender is in charge of the education of the victim.

SECTION 303: Blackmail

(1) Whoever threatens another with a defamatory imputation or with any revelation in case of his failure to comply with any order or condition shall be punished with imprisonment for from one to 5 (five) years and with fine of from CFAF 200 000 (two hundred thousand) to CFAF 2 000 000 (two million).

(2) The penalty shall be doubled for imputation of a felony.

(3) The Court may in addition impose the forfeitures described in Section 30 of this Code.

SECTION 304: False Report

(1) Whoever makes to any person in authority, whether public or private, a false report liable to lead to prosecution or to disciplinary measures shall be punished with imprisonment for from 6 (six) months to 5 (five) years and with fine of from CFAF 10 000 (ten thousand) to CFAF 1 000 000 (one million), unless he shows that he had good reason to believe the report to be true.

(2) Imprisonment shall be for from 2 (two) to 5 (five) years when the false report is anonymous.

(3) Where in consequence of the report a criminal prosecution is commenced in the trial court in respect of the facts reported, any prosecution for false report shall be stayed until final judgment.

(4) The Court may order publication of its judgment.

SECTION 305: Defamation

(1) Whoever by any of the means described in Section 152 injures the honour or reputation of another by imputations, direct or indirect, of facts which he is unable to prove shall be punished with imprisonment for from 6 (six) days to 6 (six) months and with a fine of from CFAF 5 000 (five thousand) to CFAF 2 000 000 (two million), or with only one of the penalties.

(2) These penalties shall equally apply to persons guilty of defamation in the print and audio-visual media without prejudice to the right of reply and to the obligation to publish corrections.

(3) No proof may be offered of the truth of defamatory imputation where:

- a) it concerns the private life of the person defamed; or
- b) it refers to a fact more than ten years old; or
- c) it refers to a fact constituting an offence which has been amnestied or the conviction for which has been otherwise expunged.

(4) No prosecution may be commenced without the complaint of the injured party or of his representative by law or by custom, or continued after withdrawal of the complaint.

(5) Prosecution shall be barred by the lapse of four months from commission of the offence or from the last step in preparation or prosecution.

(6) This section shall apply to defamation of the memory of a deceased person with intent to injure the honour or reputation of his living heirs, spouse or universal legatee.

(7) The penalty shall be halved for a defamation which is not public.

(8) The penalty shall be doubled for anonymous defamation.
